

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST POLICY

London Capital Group Ltd (LCG) recognises that there is the risk that, under certain circumstances, Directors (including non-executive directors), employees, associates, consultants or any other person directly or indirectly related to LCG may hold interests, financial or otherwise, and benefits that may be in conflict with the best interests of the clients and as a consequence may damage the interests of the clients. This is known as conflicts of interest.

To prevent and to minimise the risk of conflicts of interest, LCG has adopted a number of systems, procedures and controls including:

- 1) Personal account dealing requirements for all employees, including directors, associates, consultants and their immediate family in relation to their own investments.
- 2) Restriction on the flow of information between the different business units of LCG.
- 3) Restrictions in regard to accessing data stored electronically or in hard-copy form.
- 4) Restrictions in the dissemination of betting and trading information.
- 5) Restrictions on accepting gifts and inducements and receipt of certain benefits applicable to all employees, including directors, associates, consultants and their immediate family.
- 6) Application of segregation of functions that, if performed by the same individual, would increase the risk of conflicts of interests.
- 7) Application of “fit and proper test” before accepting new employees, associates and consultants.
- 8) Review by the board of potential conflicts of interest between external associates of LCG.
- 9) Promotion of “whistleblowing” (disclosure of potential conflicting activities) by the employees of LCG.
- 10) Provision of “awareness campaigns” to alert the employees of LCG of the risk of conflicts of interest.
- 11) Immediate Disclosure to clients of potential conflicts of interest, if LCG becomes aware of any.
